Conference Organisers

The Counselling Centre (TCC) in Tunbridge Wells is a registered Westminster Pastoral Foundation (WPF) counselling centre offering BACP accredited counselling services and training courses. It is a charitable organisation, relying on donations. If you would like to support The Counselling Centre with a donation, please send your cheque payable to TCC.

The Westminster Pastoral Foundation (WPF) is the largest charitable provider of counselling and psychotherapy in England. Founded in 1969, it works through a network of 28 centres in London and across England, seeing over 15,000 clients a year.

Tonbridge School is one of the country's leading boys' independent schools. It is hosting the conference as part of the ongoing Tonbridge Professional Development programme, and subsidising the costs in reflection of its commitments to charitable giving and supporting the local community.
